

3. ADVITIYA (Mono Act)

On the stage of life, we all act individually. With different scripts, we act to live the character. Acting deals with very delicate emotions. It's not putting up the mask. Each time an actor an actor acts he does not hide, he exposes himself. Expose yourself with your story, just begin it, end it and tell everything in between. So is the stage ready for you to let the actor in you speak with acting on the stage through the Mono Act.
