

BATTLE OF THE BANDS

Blitzschlag's Rockord is one of the most prestigious rock band competitions to be at and especially perform at! Win prizes worth ninety thousand rupees and put all you have at stake. If you think your band has got what it takes, register now! Mesmerize and drown yourself into the vibes that Rockord has to offer.

RULES:

- Rockord is a rock band competition that is open to any college or semi-professional band within India and abroad.
- During the event, a group would be required to end their performance within 20-22 minutes. (Amps on to amps off inclusive of sound check).
- Bands performing should be consisting of members having four at minimum and ten at maximum.
- Bands will be disqualified on the spot for misconduct, obscenity or foul language, and will be banned from performing at all subsequent editions of Blitzschlag.
- Genre of music allowed for the event is rock irrespective of the language.
- Equipment provided will be consisting of guitar amplifiers for lead, rhythm and bass. Adequate microphones will also be provided.
- Bands will have to bring their own musical instruments and special FX (pedals etc). However, programmed music (pre-recorded loops) are not allowed.
- Blitzschlag will not be held responsible for the failure of any instrument. The decision of the judges will be final and binding. The organizing committee reserves the right to make any last minute change in the rules.